

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
Plaintiff,

v.

Juan Bernardo ENRIQUES-Meza,
Defendant.

Magistrate Case No. 08MJ8503

FINDINGS OF FACT AND ORDER OF DETENTION

In accordance with § 3142(f) of the Bail Reform Act of 1984 (18 U.S.C. § 3141 et seq.), a detention hearing was held on June 4, 2008, to determine whether defendant Juan Bernardo ENRIQUES-Meza, should be held in custody pending trial on the grounds that he is a flight risk. Assistant U. S. Attorney John F. Weis, appeared on behalf of the United States. Diane Regan, of Federal Defenders of San Diego, Inc., appeared on behalf of the Defendant.

Based on the evidence proffered by the United States and the Defendant, the pretrial services officer, and the criminal complaint issued against the Defendant on June 4, 2008, by this Court, the Court concludes that the following facts establish by a preponderance of the evidence that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the Defendant is required.

I

FINDINGS OF FACT

A. Nature and Circumstances of the Offense Charged (18 U.S.C. §3142(G)(1)

1. The Defendant is charged in Criminal Complaint No. 08MJ8503 with Deported Alien Found in the United States, in violation of Title 8, United States Code, § 1326. Therefore probable cause exists to believe the Defendant committed the charged offense.

B. Weight of the Evidence Against the Defendant (18 U.S.C. § 3142(g)(2):

1. On June 2, 2008, U.S. Border Patrol Agent encountered Def in a group, west of Calexico Port of Entry. It was determined that all individuals were determined to be in the U.S. illegally.

2. Record checks revealed that the Defendant had previously been deported. Defendant admitted to his prior deportation and criminal record.

C. History and Characteristics of the Defendant (18 U.S.C. § 3142(G)(3)

1. The Defendant is a Citizen of Mexico.

2. The Defendant resides in Michoacan, Mexico.

3. The Defendant has no immigration status to live in the United States.

Furthermore, the Defendant was deported from the United States on May 8, 2008, through San Diego, California.

D. Nature and Seriousness of Danger Posed by Release (18 U.S.C. § 3142(g)(4)

1. The Defendant has the following criminal history:

06/11/07 - 236 PC False Imprisonment - 2 years prison

07/07/05 - 273.5(A) PC Inflict Corporal Injury on spouse - 15 days jail, 4 years probation

II

REASONS FOR DETENTION

A. There is probable cause to believe that the Defendant committed the offense charged in Criminal Complaint No. 08MJ8503, namely, Deported alien Found in the United States (Felony), in violation of Title 8, United States Code, § 1326.

B. The Defendant faces a substantial period of time in custody if convicted of the offense charged in the Complaint. He therefore has a strong motive to flee.

1 C. Furthermore, the Defendant is a citizen of Mexico and has no legal right to live or work
2 in the United States. Bail is, therefore, impractical as defendant if released on bail would be taken into
3 immigration custody and remain in custody or would be deported and unavailable for further
4 proceedings before this Court.

5 D. Based upon the Court's findings there is no condition or combination or conditions that
6 will reasonably assure the appearance of the Defendant as required.

8 ORDER

9 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the Defendant be detained pending trial in this matter.

10 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Defendant be committed to the custody of the Attorney
11 General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent
12 practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The 13 Defendant shall be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with counsel.

14 While in custody, upon order of a court of the United States or upon the request of an attorney
15 for the United States, the person in charge of the correctional facility shall deliver the Defendant to the 16 United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding or any 17 other appearance stipulated to by defense and government counsel.

18 THIS ORDER IS ENTERED WITHOUT PREJUDICE.

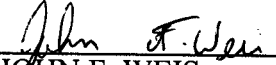

19 IT IS SO ORDERED.
